

KENTUCKY COURT REPORTERS CONFERENCE AGENDA

SEPTEMBER 8-9, 2023

Friday, September 8th

1:00 - 2:15 	SPEAKERS: Jolinda Todd, RPR, CLR, CCR(Ky), Annemarie Grant, and Jenna Parsons. COURSE: 3.04 “What’s in Your Bag(s)???” Have you ever been curious as to what other reporters carry with them to their jobs? What is everyone using to provide Zoom in an in-person depo? Jolinda, Annemarie, and Jenna will open their steno bags and share with you what they choose to carry with them to each job. This INTERACTIVE discussion will not only cover a gamut of things from the latest tech-savvy accessories for realtime, Zoom, or “zemos” but give attendees the chance to share their favorite “must haves” that are in their bag. 0.125 CEU
2:30-3:30 	SPEAKER: Anissa R. Nierenberger, RPR, CRR, CRC, CRI, B.S. Realtime Reporting COURSE: (NCRA 3.01) Play STENOphonatic The Phonetic Card Game in English and Steno for Word Fanatics! Ready for an hour of sharing briefs and vocabulary knowledge with a creative card game? Tables of 8 (four teams of two) will play STENOphonatic, the clever card game created from that steno keyboard that we know and love! By the end of the hour, you’ll want to share this game with your friends and family. Anyone can play! 0.10 CEU
3:45-4:45 	DANIEL CANON is a civil rights lawyer and a Professor of Law at the University of Louisville, Louis D. Brandeis School of Law. He served as lead counsel for the Kentucky plaintiffs in the case of Obergefell v. Hodges, which established marriage equality in all 50 states, and has been involved in many other high-profile cases. He writes on civil and criminal justice issues for a variety of regional and national publications. COURSE: (NCRA 3.10) Vicarious Traumas

	Secondary trauma stress, a set of symptoms similar to PTSD, can result from repeated professional exposure to the traumatic stories of witnesses and clients. The condition has been recognized as a problem in the legal profession for more than thirty years, but organizations have been slow to respond. This session provides an overview of what we know about secondary traumatic stress and what we need to do to protect the mental health of legal and administrative professionals in the future. 0.10 CEU

5:00 Evening reception at the Embassy Suites followed by dinner on your own.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH

8:00 – 9:00 	SPEAKER: Brian House, a lawyer, minister, writer, adventurer whether hunting the African continent, the Alaskan bush or motorcycling across America, will share how to live life to the fullest. His work as a trial lawyer and mediator has kept him fully engaged in the practice of law for 42 years while at the same time serving as a bi-vocational pastor of churches in Eastern Kentucky and is the author of numerous books. Brian is a two-time cancer survivor and believer in living every day to the fullest. COURSE: 3.10 You Matter: Making Every Day a Good Day Professional mental health and stress management are two things we often put aside due to our stress. Negative thinking is a daily struggle for most of us. Brian will be sharing an uplifting and affirming message, You Matter, which is based on his most recent publication, a book of inspiration and encouragement that he wrote while undergoing treatment for cancer. 0.10 CEU
